

2014 Marine Aggregation

INNOVATE | COLLABORATE | CELEBRATE

February 10 – 13 | Monterey, CA

FISH 2: Identifying and filling science needs for sustainable fishery interventions through stakeholder engagement and collaboration

Wednesday, February 12, 8:30 – 10:00 AM

Duration	Activity	Lead
5 min	Session introduction	Jay Udelhoven, GMT
10 min	Project 1: Wicked good partnerships with fishermen to advance marine conservation in New England	Sally McGee, Eastern U.S.
10 min	Project 2: Combining local knowledge and scientific data to reduce bycatch of overfished species in the U.S. West Coast Groundfish Fishery	Mary Gleason, California
10 min	Project 3: Engaging fishers in conservation planning -- the Cabo Rojo Project experience	Raimundo Espinoza, Caribbean
10 min	Project 4: Strengthening fisheries co-management and biodiversity conservation through Community Marine Conservation Areas, Kenya	George Maina, Africa
45 min	Panel Q&amp;A <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 15-20 min: Questions from audience to presenters</li> <li>• 15-20 min: Questions from presenters to audience</li> <li>• 10 min: Recommendations from panelists</li> </ul>	Jay Udelhoven, GMT